Consignment Drop-Off Form

Consignment Policy

We accept used boots and blades to be sold on consignment. At the time that you provide your used product, Rainbo Sports will assess its condition and likelihood that we will sell the product. Rainbo Sports will advise you of the amount that you could possibly receive. The actual amount you receive will be determined by the final selling price. At any time, Rainbo Sports may refuse to accept boots and blades for sale on consignment.

Once a boot and blade are sold on consignment, you will be notified of the sale of your merchandise and be asked to call in to confirm your information and claim the store credit or monies due.

Rainbo will attempt to sell all consignment boots and blades for up to one year. After one year and in the event that your boot or blade does not sell, you will be notified to arrange to have your boots and blades picked up. In the event that you do not arrange to have the consignment boots and blades picked up, they become property of Rainbo Sports. Rainbo Sports reserves the right to donate unclaimed items to a local charity.
